of 33

4.6 Guidelines for Standing Committee Chairs

1. The CATE Board establishes standing committees for the functioning and effectiveness of CATE. Standing committees may function for several years, but dissolve if no longer needed.
2. CATE standing committees will be chaired by members of the CATE Board. The chair will be appointed by the President and need not be an expert in the committee's field.
3. In so far as consistent with the purposes of the standing committee, the President will seek to balance the committee membership.
4. The major duties of the committee chair include the following:
 - a. To establish tasks which the committee will complete before each meeting of the CATE Board.
 - b. To attend meetings of the CATE Board and report out progress at each board meeting.

4.7 Guidelines for Ad Hoc Committee Chairs

1. The CATE Board establishes ad hoc committees for the functioning and effectiveness of CATE. Ad hoc committees may function for several years, but dissolve if no longer needed.
2. CATE ad hoc committees will be chaired by members of the CATE Board. The chair will be appointed by the President and need not be an expert in the committee's field.
3. In so far as consistent with the purpose of the ad hoc committee, the President will seek to balance the committee membership.
4. The major duties of the committee chair include the following:
 - a) To establish tasks which the committee will complete before each meeting of the CATE Board,
 - b) To attend meetings of the CATE Board and report out progress at each board meeting.

4.8 California Young Reader Medal Committee

1. As a co-sponsor of the California Young Reader Medal program, CATE is entitled to three representatives on the state CYRM committee.
2. Because of the implications of CYRM activities in terms of general finance and the conducting of the medal presentation at the annual CATE convention,

the CATE Board CYRM Committee shall be a standing committee chaired by a member of the CATE Board and composed of other CATE Board members and/or ex-officio members as appointed. Aside from CATE Board meetings, the committee shall ordinarily communicate electronically.

3. The CATE Board authorizes travel expenses for three members representing CATE on the state CYRM Committee to attend each meeting of the state CYRM steering committee. Travel expenses to participate in conferences of the other organizations sponsoring the medal must be approved by the CATE Board.

4. The chair of the CATE Board CYRM Committee is responsible for reporting state CYRM steering committee news to the CATE Board, coordinating related CYRM activities with the current convention chair, preparing the CYRM annual report, promoting CATE members, participation in the CYRM program and sending the editor of CALIFORNIA ENGLISH and the CATE Webmaster
appropriate timely articles and information. The chair may delegate duties to other committee members.

5. The senior CATE representative to the state CYRM Committee will be responsible for the preparation of a report for each Board of Directors meeting.
If no member of the current Board of Directors is on the state CYRM Committee, the report to the CATE Board will be made electronically.

6. CATE will contribute annually to a fund set up to support the activities of the state CYRM Committee. The amount shall be determined annually by the four cooperating organizations. The funds will be administered by the California
Reading Association.

Moved by Hamilton-Bunch, Surabian 2nd.

Motion carried.

1. Goals
 - a. Increase the leadership capacity in all
 - b. Seek to increase the diversity on the board and in membership

12. Motion to change policies—7.1-7.6 as amended

POLICY 7.0 ANNUAL CONVENTION

7.1 Convention Chair

1. The convention chair is a director appointed by the president with board approval. The convention chair is responsible for all matters associated with the convention program.
2. The convention chair is appointed in February, two years before his or her convention, and serves an 18-month term beginning with the May Board of Directors meeting. The chair will remain on the Board until the May Board meeting following the convention for the purpose of making a final report.
3. Because the CATE annual convention is a statewide meeting, the convention chair shall make every effort to ensure on the convention program a balance among presenters of those representing geographic areas of the state; instructional levels, kindergarten through college; new and returning presenters; and members of various racial, ethnic, gender, geographic, and age groups.
4. Where appropriate CATE liaison groups shall be invited to participate as presenters or guests. [Consideration of reimbursement for expenses of these presenters or guests must have prior approval by the CATE Board.]
5. The convention chair shall refrain from publishing the convention fee structure in any convention materials until the treasurer and the convention coordinator have presented it to the Board for approval.

6. The convention chair will consult with the CATE Board about presentation of CATE awards and arrangement for other required CATE Board functions such as the annual business meeting.

7. The convention chair will provide candidates for CATE offices the opportunity to speak to the convention participants at some specific function such as the annual business meeting.

8. In general it is the policy of the CATE Board to delegate to the convention chair the authority for planning the convention schedule and program with guidelines from the CATE Board of Directors and the Convention Coordinating Committee. The CATE Board of Directors will approve the convention budget.

9. The convention chair(s) and local planning committee chairs will receive a 50% discount on registration, the number to be approved by the Board at the September meeting. The convention chair(s) will receive complimentary convention meals.

7.2 Convention Coordinating Committee

1. The president is authorized to appoint a Convention Coordinating Committee to be headed by the convention coordinator and to include as members at least the current convention chair(s) and the subsequent year's chair(s), two council committee representatives and two members-at-large. The president will seek to balance the committee in terms of geographic areas, ethnic groups, gender, and teaching levels represented.

20 of 33

2. The convention coordinator is an appointed director whose three-year term begins in February and runs until May of the third year to provide overlap between coordinators. The position is subject to annual review.

3. The Convention Coordinating Committee ordinarily meets in conjunction with the Board of Directors meetings.

4. The purposes of the committee are to

- Oversee the business end of conventions

- Entertain creative ideas for future conventions
- Propose to the Board major changes
- Work with convention chairs to obtain major speakers for future conventions, and
- Create and submit a convention budget for approval by the Board of Directors.

5. Overseeing the business end of conventions means that the convention coordinator, acting for the Board and the Convention Coordinating Committee, negotiates with hotel personnel for convention space, meal arrangements, and on-site hotel arrangements; and acts before and during the Convention as CATE liaison with hotel personnel.

6. The Convention Coordinator with the advice of the Coordinating Committee shall investigate potential sites for future conventions and be responsible for reporting to the Board, usually in May, the Convention Coordinating Committee's recommendations for future sites.

7.3 Exhibits Manager

1. The Board of Directors shall appoint the exhibits manager at the February Board meeting, for a term ending the first day of the annual convention in the next calendar year and shall confirm the appointment at the first meeting after April 15.

2 The exhibits manager shall work in coordination with the convention chair and convention coordinator, attending meetings or providing reports as necessary.

3. The exhibits manager shall prepare and distribute promotional material for exhibit space at the convention at no expense to CATE. The exhibits manager shall be responsible for all negotiations with exhibitors, including contracts, assignment of booth space, arranging for the decorator, greeting exhibitors, assisting them as needed, and obtaining payment from them. The exhibits manager shall prepare and distribute to the CATE Board at the first meeting after the convention a convention exhibits report.

4. All checks and money paid for booths shall be deposited into the CATE account as soon as possible and reported to the treasurer. The CATE treasurer then returns the agreed-upon commission to the exhibits manager as soon as possible.

21 of 33

5. The rate of commission will be established by the Board of Directors at the time the appointment is reviewed.

7.4 Convention Registrar

1. CATE will hire a convention registrar, appointed by the president with Board approval for up to a three-year-term, subject to annual review.
2. CATE will pay the registrar's travel and hotel expenses to the conference as well a stipend per conference attendee (whether paid or complimentary registration), said stipend to be determined annually by the CATE Board of Directors.
3. CATE shall pay office and miscellaneous expenses incurred by registration
(i.e. rental of post office box, postage, hiring of data entry persons for on-site
registration).

4. The duties of the convention registrar shall include but not be limited to the following:
a) Receiving all mail registrations,
b) Recording and depositing all checks,
c) Sending a copy of deposits and bank receipts to the CATE treasurer,
d) Processing all mail registrations and meal ticket sales,
e) Resolving all registration problems for both on-site and mail registrations,
f) Supervising the registration booth at the Convention,
g) Coordinating with the CATE treasurer the deposit of cash from on-site registrations and mail registrations
h) Forwarding membership information to the designated mailing service,
i) Preparing and presenting to the CATE Board at the first meeting after the convention a convention registration report.

7.5 College Credit at CATE Convention

1. CATE shall be the contracting agent for college credit at CATE
conventions.
2. In selecting a college or university to grant credit, priority will be given to an accredited institution, which services the area in which the convention is held.

3. Fees charged to participants shall be based on the following criteria: the charge to CATE members will be 190-210% of the charge by the sponsoring institution.

4. Reimbursement for the instructor(s) shall be on a per student basis.

5. The Convention Coordinator is responsible for obtaining a college/university to offer credit at the CATE Convention. The Convention Coordinator will present the details to the CATE Board of Directors for approval prior to the convention. Details to be arranged include selecting the appropriate institution, selecting the instructor(s), and setting the fees. All arrangements must be approved by the Board of Directors before they are binding upon CATE.

7.6 Guidelines for Presenters at CATE Annual Convention

1. As a professional organization, CATE attempts to provide in its convention program the materials, practices, and opportunities for exchange of view that will improve instruction, expand knowledge of curriculum, and promote professional growth of its members.

2. The convention chair and members of the convention planning committee will make every effort to ensure that those presentations sponsored by commercial organizations, such as publishers or test companies, are clearly labeled "commercial presentation."

3. Convention workshops and other sessions are not to be used for the purpose of an individual's or a company's sale or advertising of a specific product, test, or other material. Convention participants and speakers who introduce them are to be informed of this guideline at the time of the invitation to participate in the program.

C. Policy Committee

Angus Dunstan led committee for Jim Kleigl
Present: Bill Younglove, Angus Dunstan, Bob Chapman, Carole LeCren, Carrie Danielson
Not present: Jim Kleigl, Debra Martinez, Ron Lauderbach, Carol Jago

1. Discussion of Standards Common Core
2. Discussed ideas for resolutions
3. Discussed role and procedures for resolutions

Can we create something like a “policy statement” that is posted on CATEweb in contrast to Resolutions?

4. Motion to change policies 4.1-4.53 as amended

POLICY 4.0 COMMITTEES AND SPECIAL ASSIGNMENTS

4.1 Consolidation of CATE Board of Directors Responsibilities

Whenever feasible, official Board members as defined in the By-laws shall assume responsibility for all functions of the CATE Board. When for any reason it is not feasible for a director to fulfill a responsibility of the Board, and it becomes necessary to appoint an ex-officio Board member to serve in that capacity, the ex-officio Board member shall attend only those meetings to which he or she has been specifically invited. The ex-officio member will conform to the provisions of the By-law as regards voting procedures.

4.2 CATE Policy and Censorship Committee

1. The Policy and Censorship Committee is a standing committee whose chair is appointed annually by the CATE president from the CATE Board and whose members shall include (if the position is filled):

- * at least one Council Representatives,
- * one Members-at-Large,
- * CATE Resolutions Chair,
- * CATE Legislative Analyst,
- * CDE Liaison,
- * CTA Liaison,
- * CCCC Liaison,
- * CWP Liaison, and
- * CE Editor

2. The function of the Policy and Censorship Committee is to:

- * monitor important legislation and other policy issues affecting the teaching of English/Language Arts,
- * propose to the CATE Board of Directors appropriate responses to legislation relative to those issues,

* inform CATE members via publication in California English, CATEweb and CATENet, *Report to the CATE Board at each of its meetings, and *Suggest resolutions to the Resolution Committee

3. The CATE Policy and Censorship Chair shall serve as the CATE Representative to SLATE.

4.3 The Resolutions Committee

1. The Resolutions Committee is a standing committee whose chair is appointed annually by the CATE president.

2. A member of each council committee, selected by the council itself, is a member of the Resolutions Committee headed by the CATE Resolutions Chair.
11 of 33

3. The purpose of the Resolutions Committee is to call for resolutions from council committees and CATE members. At the CATE annual convention, the Resolutions Committee synthesizes similar Resolutions, rejects unclear or unsuitable resolutions, and brings only endorsed resolutions to the Board but reports on those rejected.

4. The CATE Board of Directors makes final approval of resolutions to be presented at the CATE annual business meeting.

5. The Resolutions Committee reports out at the annual business meeting only those resolutions, which have the approval of the Resolutions Committee and the Board of Directors.

6. The Resolutions Chair coordinates the work of the Resolutions Committee in the preparation of resolutions for consideration at the annual business meeting and provides the editor of CALIFORNIA ENGLISH, the moderator of CATENet, the webmaster of CATEweb, and the CATE President with clean copies of the resolutions and sense of the house motions.

7. Policies that govern reimbursement of CATE Board members apply also to the chair of the Resolutions Committee and to the members of the Resolutions Committee at the annual convention. CATE does not reimburse committee members for convention registration.

4.4 CATE Advisory Committee

1. The president is authorized to form an Advisory Committee to hold four meetings per year. The purposes of these meetings, if held, are to assist the president and in the development of the agenda for Board of Directors meetings, to review CATE policies due for Board consideration, to prepare detailed information needed for Board action, and to assist the president in coordinating Board activities.

2. The membership of the Advisory Committee shall be chosen by the President and selected for representation from throughout the entire state, and the majority of the Advisory Committee members shall be elected CATE Board members.

3. It shall be customary for the Advisory Committee meetings to be chaired by a member other than the CATE president, usually but not necessarily, the vice president.

4.5 Council Representatives Committee

1. A committee of representatives from each CATE council committee shall be formed each year. The committee shall be chaired by a member of this group elected each September by members of the committee.

2. The function of the committee shall be to promote communication and cooperation among the diverse CATE council committees. The committee will work toward finding solutions for council committee concerns (e.g. coordination of NCTE nominations and promotion of local activities) and will propose appropriate actions by the council committees and/or the CATE Board of Directors.

3. The Council Representatives Committee shall meet on the evening of the first day of each CATE Board meeting. The chair will be given time on each board agenda for a committee report.

Moved by Dunstan, Mikkonen 2nd, Motion carried.

7. Try to push the two-year membership
Motion: Williams moved and Danielson 2nd to accept Policies 5.1-5.4.5 as written.

POLICY 5.0 LIAISON

5.1 Liaison

1. CATE establishes liaison with other professional organizations in order to share mutual concerns and to increase the effectiveness of each organization.
2. CATE may establish liaison with any professional organization having at least 25 members, an elected governing body, and a constitution or By-laws.
3. CATE will maintain liaison with the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE) through the appointment of the immediate past president as the CATE/NCTE liaison officer.
4. CATE welcomes and encourages attendance at CATE Board meetings of one or more liaison representatives from the California Department of Education, expenses borne by the Department of Education.
5. The CATE Board authorizes dues and travel expenses for one liaison representative to attend each meeting of the California Curriculum Coordinating Commission.
6. Duties of any liaison representative shall ordinarily include but not be limited to the following:
 - a) Corresponding with an appropriate officer of the other organization.
 - b) Sending the appropriate officer the following information that affects the organization's concerns: notice of Board actions, CALIFORNIA ENGLISH articles, conference programs or resolutions
 - c) Responding to similar items received from the other organization.
 - d) Informing the CATE Board of contacts made and activities that affect CATE interests.
 - e) Requesting that the CATE Board support certain positions of the other organizations.
 - f) When feasible because of geographic proximity, attending board meetings or conferences of the other organizations.
 - g) When appropriate, making arrangements with the CATE president for the attendance of the officer from another organization at a CATE Board meeting or convention.

5.2 Liaison with NCTE

1. Members of the CATE Board of Directors must be members of the National Council of Teachers of English.
2. Council committee members must be members of NCTE.
3. CATE encourages all eligible council committees to become affiliates of NCTE and all CATE members to become members of NCTE.

5.3 Appointment of Directors to the Annual NCTE Business Meeting

1. The CATE President and the CATE liaison officer to NCTE (the immediate past president) will represent CATE at the annual business meeting of NCTE.
2. When CATE is entitled to additional directors, the president shall appoint those directors from the CATE Board of Directors, and the president shall also appoint alternates for all directors from CATE.
3. In the event that it is possible to select other directors and alternates, the president shall observe the following priority sequence:
 - a) vice-president,
 - b) Convention Coordinator,
 - c) policy and censorship/SLATE chair,
 - d) membership chair,
 - e) secretary
 - f) members-at-large (taking into account seniority service).
4. Under the guidance of the Convention Coordinator the directors appointed to the NCTE Convention shall invite exhibitors who exhibit at that convention to exhibit at the CATE Convention.

5.4 CATE Nominations for NCTE Offices

1. If necessary, the NCTE liaison officer (immediate past president) will contact NCTE headquarters prior to the final CATE Board meeting each year in May for the list of NCTE offices open for nomination in the following year.
2. Council committee representatives will identify with their council committee boards their possible candidates for NCTE offices prior to the Council Committee representatives meeting before the September CATE Board meeting. Council committee representatives should notify the CATE Board and the other council committee representatives of their intention to nominate a person for a particular NCTE office. Council committee representatives can seek support for their candidates from other council committees and/or the CATE Board itself.
3. So that the CATE president can strengthen the candidacy of all CATE nominees for NCTE offices, council committee representatives will notify the CATE president of their candidates no later than October 15, with nominations accompanied by complete supporting biographical data.
4. During the annual NCTE convention in November, the CATE president or designees will address the appropriate NCTE and section nominating committees in support of CATE candidates who meet the requirements of Policies 5.4.2. 5. The CATE president and CATE Board of Directors may take appropriate steps to support the candidacy of CATE members running for NCTE offices.

Motion carried.

1. In order to foster communications about English/language arts instruction, policy, and education, CATE shall provide its membership with a moderated Internet discussion group via e-mail discussion group, list serve, newsgroup, and/or bulletin board service called CATENet.

2. The CATE Board of Directors shall appoint a CATENet moderator from among the members of the Board or from qualified applicants. The Board Publications Committee shall recommend a moderator to the Board of Directors at the appropriate May meeting. The moderator shall be appointed to a two-year term, renewable for additional two-year terms, and subject to annual review.

3 If the moderator is not a member of the Board of Directors, he or she shall attend the annual Convention Board of Directors meeting and/or any additional meetings at the request of the Board. The expenses to such meetings shall be paid by CATE as per its regular Board policy for reimbursement of travel expenses. The purpose of such attendance is to assist the moderator in understanding the activities of CATE, to enable the moderator to meet with the Publications Committee for annual review and to provide the moderator with direction for the up-coming year.

4. The CATENet moderator will work closely with the Publications Committee to determine the most appropriate and useful content for CATENet, the rules of discussion and protocol for CATENet, and budgetary considerations. The moderator shall also work closely with the CATE publications editors.

5. CATENet shall be updated regularly. Other duties of the CATENet moderator shall be determined in consultation with the Publications Committee.
6. The CATENet moderator shall be knowledgeable of the latest in Internet applications, knowledgeable of electronic discussion groups and their applications such as news groups and list-serves, and familiar with the issues affecting CATE and the language arts.
7. The moderator shall be paid an honorarium to be determined by the Board and shall have reasonable and necessary office and other expenses such as software costs, Internet access fees, and subscriptions reimbursed by CATE. If the moderator is a voting member of the CATE Board of Directors, no honorarium is paid. The Publications Committee shall submit an annual budget to the treasurer in time for inclusion and approval at the May Board meeting.
8. The contents of CATENet such as email addresses, CATENet archives, and other such contents shall remain the property of CATE. Software programs, equipment, and Internet accounts purchased by CATE shall also remain the property of the organization unless otherwise determined by the CATE Board of Directors.
9. A disclaimer containing the following two sentences shall be placed on CATENet. "Opinions expressed on CATENet are not necessarily those of CATE." and "CATENet does not accept solicitations from commercial publishers."

Motion carried.

Motion: LeCren moved to accept changes in policies

6.1-6.6.4

POLICY 6.0 PUBLICATIONS

6.1 Council News in CALIFORNIA ENGLISH

The editor of CALIFORNIA ENGLISH shall list in the magazine council committee events which appear on the calendar prepared by the CATE secretary. The editor shall also provide council presidents with appropriate format information. Council committee presidents shall oversee selection of correspondents to provide the CALIFORNIA ENGLISH editor with copy on major council committee conferences and other information appropriate to the statewide audience.

6.2 Editor of CALIFORNIA ENGLISH

1. The editor of CALIFORNIA ENGLISH is appointed by the CATE Board of Directors for a three-year term, subject to annual review, with additional one-year terms possible at Board invitation.

2. A newly appointed editor seeks bid from printers, presents them to the Board, and requests Board approval of a printer prior to his or her first issue. If necessary, the editor may follow this process to change printers during his or her tenure.

3. The editor performs or delegates the normal duties of editor, such as planning and seeking appropriate content for each issue, adding or dropping columnists, working with writers to improve otherwise acceptable manuscripts, rejecting unsuitable manuscripts, planning issue layout, and correcting proofs.

4. The editor serves as an ex-officio, non-voting member of the CATE Board, in order to remain current on CATE information which must appear in CALIFORNIA ENGLISH.

5. The editor receives for each issue an honorarium determined by the Board of Directors, with an amount for the editor's normal office expenditures, and appoints a CALIFORNIA ENGLISH advertising manager whose fee does not affect the editor's honoraria.

6.3 Selection of the CALIFORNIA ENGLISH Editor

1. The search for a new editor of CALIFORNIA ENGLISH begins no later than September of the current editor's final year. The search includes formation of a Search Committee with notices in CALIFORNIA ENGLISH that an editor is being sought.

2. The Search Committee is chaired by a present or past CATE Board member knowledgeable in publications. The chair seeks for the committee CATE members who are knowledgeable about publications, and seeks to balance the committee in terms of geographical areas represented, gender, ethnic groups, and teaching levels.

3. The committee develops its own guidelines for applications, screening, and interviewing the candidates. Finalists are selected and notified by December 20. The finalists are interviewed during the February convention of the current editor's final year, and a recommendation made to the Board. The Board makes the final selection and notifies the new editor immediately.

6.4 Publications Other Than CALIFORNIA ENGLISH

1. The CATE President will appoint a Publications Committee, chaired by a voting member of the Board of Directors to oversee all CATE publications.
2. The Publications Committee will serve as a preliminary screening board for all CATE publications, with the exception of CALIFORNIA ENGLISH.
3. Publications will be governed by the following criteria:
 - a) wide appeal to teacher audience,
 - b) relevance to the current teaching environment,
 - c) cost of the proposed publication,
 - d) lack of already published material on the topic,
 - e) appropriateness to CATE position on current issues.

6.5 CATENet

1. In order to foster communications about English/language arts instruction, policy, and education, CATE shall provide its membership with a moderated Internet discussion group via e-mail discussion group, list serve, newsgroup, and/or bulletin board service called CATENet.
2. The CATE Board of Directors shall appoint a CATENet moderator from among the members of the Board or from qualified applicants. The Board Publications Committee shall recommend a moderator to the Board of Directors at the appropriate May meeting. The moderator shall be appointed to a two-year term, renewable for additional two-year terms, and subject to annual review.
3. If the moderator is not a member of the Board of Directors, he or she shall attend the annual Convention Board of Directors meeting and/or any additional meetings at the request of the Board. The expenses to such meetings shall be paid by CATE as per its regular Board policy for reimbursement of travel expenses. The purpose of such attendance is to assist the moderator in understanding the activities of CATE, to enable the moderator to meet with the Publications Committee for annual review and to provide the moderator with direction for the up-coming year.
4. The CATENet moderator will work closely with the Publications Committee to determine the most appropriate and useful content for CATENet, the rules of discussion and protocol for CATENet, and budgetary considerations. The moderator shall also work closely with the CATE publications editors.
5. CATENet shall be updated regularly. Other duties of the CATENet moderator shall be determined in consultation with the Publications Committee.
6. The CATENet moderator shall be knowledgeable of the latest in Internet applications, knowledgeable of electronic discussion groups and their applications such as news groups and list-serves, and familiar with the issues affecting CATE and the language arts.
7. The moderator shall be paid an honorarium to be determined by the Board and shall have reasonable and necessary office and other expenses such as software costs, Internet access fees, and subscriptions reimbursed by CATE. If the moderator is a voting member of the CATE Board of Directors, no honorarium is paid. The Publications Committee shall submit an annual budget to the treasurer in time for inclusion and approval at the May Board meeting.
8. The contents of CATENet such as email addresses, CATENet archives, and other such contents shall remain the property of CATE. Software programs, equipment, and Internet accounts purchased by CATE shall also remain the property of the organization unless otherwise determined by the CATE Board of Directors.

9. A disclaimer containing the following two sentences shall be placed on CATENet. "Opinions expressed on CATENet are not necessarily those of CATE." and "CATENet does not accept solicitations from commercial publishers."
